Thank you for your letter of 4 April 1984 concerning your interest in employment with this Agency.

I am always pleased to learn of young people who are interested in a career in the intelligence profession. I am enclosing a brochure and fliers which describe our professional requirements and opportunities. In the meantime, I have asked our Director of Personnel to arrange for our Boston recruiter to contact you in the near future for an interview.

I appreciate your writing to me and you may be sure that your application will receive every consideration.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey
